

Dear Teens,

The Teen Resource Center is looking for a dynamic group of teenagers to be a part of the 2010-2011 Teen Advisory Committee!

The Teen Resource Center (TRC) is part of the Charles B. Wang Community Health Center, where youths ages 13-21 years old can talk to informed and friendly Teen Health Educators about health issues. The mission of the TRC is to provide information and support to the Asian American adolescent population through health education, youth programs & activities, and referrals.

In order to continually improve our services to the Asian American teens, the TRC needs your help! As a Teen Advisor, you can:

- Express your thoughts on important teen issues
- Develop communication skills and decision-making abilities
- Become involved in planning programs for the benefits of teens in the community; make an impact on your community!
- Earn volunteer hours
- Challenge yourself
- Make new friends

The Teen Advisory position requires a one year commitment at the Teen Resource Center starting from September 2010 to September 2011. You will participate in monthly advisory meetings (2 hours long each time) where you will share your thoughts and perspectives on how the TRC can improve our educational materials, youth programs & activities. We care about what you think. We value your opinions!

If you are interested, please fill out the application form and drop it off at the Teen Resource Center which is located at 125 Walker Street, 2nd Floor, New York, NY. The deadline is Rolling Admission. (please return ASAP)
