DR. THOMAS TAM TEEN RESOURCE CENTER SCHOLARSHIP

This scholarship was established in 2008 by the Dr. Thomas Tam Memorial Scholarship Foundation in memory of Dr. Thomas Tam, a co-founder of the Charles B. Wang Community Health Center. The purpose of this scholarship is to further the mission of the Teen Resource Center (TRC) by providing financial support to eligible community youth. The scholarship will support the TRC's goal to provide information and support to the Asian American adolescent population through health education, youth program and activities and referrals. Successful scholarship applicants should demonstrate that they are committed to promoting healthy choices and to fulfilling the needs of their community. This can be demonstrated through various leadership roles and service to the community.

Scholarship recipients will receive a one-time scholarship of $500 for use at accredited universities or colleges within the US. The deadline to apply is Friday, March 1st, 2019. The selection committee will select up to four recipients from all applications received.

ELIGIBILITY

- Seniors anticipating completion of a high school diploma during the academic year in which the application is made
- Seniors planning to pursue a degree at an accredited US post-secondary institution

SELECTION CRITERIA

Scholarship recipients will be selected based on the following criteria:

- Demonstrated commitment to applicant's community
- Application essay
- Recommendation letter (Mailed or e-mailed with a letterhead and contact information.)
- Special consideration will be given to members of the Teen Resource Center.

Interested in becoming a member of the Teen Resource Center? Email at trc@cbwchc.org or call 212-226-2044 to talk to one of our Teen Health Educators.
